SUNDAY SHOCKS THE CLERGY.

Western Revivalist Calls Presbyterian Preachers Hard Names. PITTSBURG, Pa., June 2.-Rev. Billy was at a high pitch. Sunday, the evangelist, delivered an address to the Presbyterian ministers of Pittsburg yesterday. His words caused consternation among the proceders, some of whom left the First Presbyterian Church, their dignity stung, but most of them remained to the end. Rev. Mr. Sunday, who is a former professional base ball player, has been conducting a revival at Sharon, near here, and came to Pittsburg to speak on "Why Some Ministers Fail."

The evangelist said many of the ministers of the present day were "fudge-eattoday are anything but stiffs, salary the republican party. quacks, willing to accept social distinction, and that many of them are qualified candidates for the "funny" house. Continuing, he said: "Some of you ministers are controlled by riches, and not by the Bible. Many of you are grafters, pure and simple. You know this, too. There are some of you preaching today that should be carrying the hod. What we do want is to tear down the seminaries and stand the professors on their heads in mud-puddles. ON LAKE PLACID, N. Y. JUNE 15 TO OCT. 1. Held High Place in Councils of the Democrats.

END COMES WITHOUT WARNING

Not Known to Have Been Seriously Ill-Mr. Bryan Expresses Sorrow at the News.

James Kimbrough Jones, United States enator from Arkansas for eighteen years, and predecessor of Senator James P. Clarke, now a member of the upper body of Congress from that state, died last evening at 5:30 o'clock at his residence in this city, 1812 19th street northwest. He was sixty-nine years of age. Death came unexpectedly and was the result of an attack of heart failure.

During his long service in the Senate Mr. Jones rose to a high place in the councils of his party. For a number of years he was chairman of the democratic caucus of the Senate. He was chairman of the democratic national committee in the campaigns of 1896 and 1900. He was a warm friend of William Jennings Bryan up to the time of his death. Since leaving the Senate in 1903 Senator fones had been engaged in the practice of law in this city. He never went back into politics.

He returned from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Leonora Carrigan, in Arkansas last Friday and was apparently enjoying good health Sunday night. He com-plained slightly of his physical condition yesterday morning and remained in bed during the day. It was not known that he was seriously ill until very near the Senator Jones leaves a wife and three children, Mrs. Carrigan of Arkansas, Miss Sue Jones and James K. Jones, jr., of this city. Senator Jones will be buried in this city, and many of his former colleagues in Congress who have not yet left the city will remain over to attend the funeral.

Funeral arrangements will probably be announced tomorrow. Mr. Jones' daughter, who is on her way to Washington hotels and boarding houses offer accommodations Sulphur Springs, Salt Sulphur Springs, the Alle. lays owing to heavy rains and washouts on the railroad. Until she reaches St. Louis nothing definite can be announced. Senator Jones' Career.

> A native of Mississippi, where he was born in 1839, James Kimbrough Jones received a classical education and fought as a private soldier in the Confederate ranks throughout the civil war. Becoming a resident of Dallas county, Ark., he lived on his plantation there until 1873, when he took up the practice of law. He was elected to the state senate the same year and became president of that body in 1877. Afterward he was elected to the Forty-seventh and the two succeeding Congresses, and in 1885 succeeded to the seat of James D. Walker in the United States Senate, where he served three terms, retiring in 1903. Senator Jones was a delegate to the national democratic convention of 1896 which gave Mr. Bryan his first nomination and as chairman of the committee on resolutions he reported the 16 to 1 platform. He was made chairman of the democratic ON TOP OF THE BEAUTIFUL ALLEGHENIES, national committee after the convention NEAR DEER PARK AND OAKLAND. and as such conducted both of the Bryan and as such conducted both of the Bryan campaigns for the presidency. Although not an orator, Senator Jones was a forceful and logical speaker and was often heard in debate. Before the convention in St. Louis in 1898 Senator Jones was opposed to the nomination of Mr. Bryan for the presidency. He went to the convention to support Bland. The famous "cross of gold" speech, however, won Mr. Jones, as it did many others who had previously opposed Mr. Bryan. He went at once to the Nebraskan and offered him his support. It is said that when Mr. Bryan press and was very largely attended. tried to have the voting on the nomination postponed to another day, Mr. Jones Held in High Esteem.

Senator Jones was held in high esteem by everybody with whom he came in contact. A story is told that five days prior to the November election in 1898 more than $50,000 came to him at campaign headquarters to be used in the election. He sent it back to the donors at once, with the word that the election was either won or lost, and no amount of money could change the result. It was generally reported during the last few months that while he was a warm friend of Mr. Bryan, he did not think he should be renominated this suming mollycoddles, who are continually mer by the democrats.  THE GENUINE IMPORTED RED DWARF INK PENCIL Costs More and Costs Less"

Never scratches, sputters or blots like the ordinary steel pen. Never clogs nor floods, never smears the fingers or clothing like a fountain pen. Always writes at first touch clearly, smoothly, quickly and steadily on any kind of paper. Can be carried in any position—upside down or flat, in the pocket, or left on the desk. It never leaks. The Red Dwarf Ink Pencil is the only practical ink pencil made. Women are delighted with it. Business men use the Red Dwarf in preference to steel or fountain pens. Children can be trusted with the Red warf without fear of staining or blotting. It is especially adapted for carbon work and a veritable boon for all whose business necessitates the making of duplicate copies. Call on your nearest dealer or write, inclosing $2.50, and we will send you a Red Dwarf Ink Pencil securely packed in a box. Examine it, carry it in your packet-use it in your work-if it does not give complete satisfaction in every detail, we will cheerfully return your money. Every genuine Red Dwarf Ink Pencil is guaranteed for five years against defect in construction, workmanship or material. Made in two sizes—Number 1, 4½ inches long; number 2, 5% inches long. State which size you prefer.

CAUTION.—When you purchase an ink pencil be sure it's the genuine imported Red Dwarf Ink Pencil, and protect yourself against unscrupulous dealers who, because of greater profits, may think it to their interest to palm off a pirate brand or a worthless imitation. Look for the name "D. WOOD & CO.," which is imprinted on the barrel of the genuine Red Dwarf Ink Pencil.

Jones was chairman of the bimetalist or ganization that carried on the fight in 1896 that ended in our capturing the Chicago convention, and it was because of his prominence in that fight that I asked that he be made chairman of the national committee. To him I am indebted for the opportunity to close the debate on the tariff and make a speech which I presume will stand as the most effective one I ever delivered. As soon as this meeting is over, I shall take occasion to send a message of regret and condolence.
